

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

DISTRICT OF NEVADA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

CARL CHESTER,

Defendant.

2:06-cr-00309-RCJ-PAL-1

ORDER

In December 2007, a jury convicted Defendant Carl Chester of three counts of possession of a controlled substance with intent to distribute. The Court sentenced Defendant to 264 months of imprisonment, to be followed by five years of supervised release. Defendant appealed, and the Court of Appeals affirmed in March 2009. Defendant later successfully moved in state court to have a state criminal judgment against him amended. Defendant then filed a habeas corpus motion in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255, arguing, inter alia, that he should be resentenced because the original sentencing was based on a career offender finding that could not be supported in light of the correction to the state court judgment. In October 2011, the Court granted the motion as to resentencing but denied the motion as to the claims of ineffective assistance of counsel and prosecutorial misconduct. In March 2012, the Court resentenced Defendant to 168 months of imprisonment, to be followed by five years of supervised release. Defendant appealed, and the Court of Appeals affirmed in August 2013.

Defendant filed a second § 2255 motion. The Court denied the motion, stating that Defendant would have to petition the Court of Appeals for permission to file a successive motion

1 under § 2255. See 28 U.S.C. § 2255(h). Defendant filed a motion to reconsider, noting that a 2 § 2254 motion is not “second or successive” under the statute if an amended judgment and 3 sentencing has intervened since the first motion was adjudicated. See Wentzell v. Neven, 674 F.3d
4 1124, 1127 (9th Cir. 2012). The Court, assuming arguendo that the Court of Appeals would read 5 “second or successive” under § 2255(h) to mean the same thing as it does under § 2244(b), 6 declined to reconsider, denying the arguments on the merits.

7 Defendant also asked the Court to issue a certificate of appealability, sanction the United 8 States, enter default judgment in his favor, hold an evidentiary hearing, release him or transfer 9 him to a facility closer to Las Vegas in anticipation of an evidentiary hearing, and appoint
10 counsel. The Court denied those motions. The Court of Appeals denied a motion for a 11 certificate of appealability. Defendant filed several more motions asking the Court to reconsider 12 and reassign the case to a new judge. The Court denied those motions. Defendant later filed 13 several more motions for appointment of the Federal Public Defender that the Court had 14 permitted to withdraw due to a conflict of interest, for reassignment to a new judge, and to order 15 a settlement of Defendant’s appeal. The Court denied the motions. Defendant later asked the 16 Court to issue a certificate of appealability as to the order denying those motions. The Court 17 denied the motion. The Court also denied a motion titled “Motion of Actual Innocence and 18 Unlawful Incarceration.”

19 Defendant has now asked the Court to reconsider its April 17, 2014 order denying his 20 second § 2255 motion based on the state court having corrected certain records. Specifically, he 21 notes that the state court has since corrected its own record to reflect that “Def[endan]t as part of 22 his negotiations in [Case No. C201197] indeed pled guilty in [Case No. 03M284706X].” That 23 does not tend to show that the two sentences should be counted as one under the Guidelines, 24 however. The relevant provision reads:

25 If the defendant has multiple prior sentences, determine whether those

1 sentences are counted separately or as a single sentence. Prior sentences always 2 are counted separately if the sentences were imposed for offenses that were 3 separated by an intervening arrest (i.e., the defendant is arrested for the first 4 offense prior to committing the second offense). If there is no intervening arrest, 5 prior sentences are counted separately unless (A) the sentences resulted from 6 offenses contained in the same charging instrument; or (B) the sentences were 7 imposed on the same day. Count any prior sentence covered by (A) or (B) as a 8 single sentence.

9 U.S.S.G. § 4A1.2(a)(2). The evidence adduced by Defendant only tends to show that both cases 10 were resolved as a part of the same negotiations. The evidence does not tend to answer the 11 relevant questions of whether Defendant was arrested for the first offense before he committed 12 the second offense or, if not, whether both offenses were included in the same charging 13 instrument (almost certainly not the case, as the offenses were charged in different courts, i.e., the 14 Las Vegas Justice Court and the Eighth Judicial District Court) or whether the sentences were 15 imposed on the same day (also unlikely for the same reason).

16 Defendant also argues that his resentencing counsel failed to discuss the pre-sentence 17 report with him. But the Court of Appeals has already denied a certificate of appealability as to 18 the Court's April 17, 2014 dismissal order, in which the Court denied, inter alia, Defendant's 19 claims of ineffective assistance of re-sentencing counsel because the motion was successive.

20 CONCLUSION

21 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Motion to Reconsider (ECF No. 324) is DENIED.

22 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Motion to Unseal Docket Numbers 196 and 197
23 (ECF No. 322) is GRANTED.

24 IT IS SO ORDERED.

25 Dated: This 4th day of December, 2015.
